

GOD TOLD ME TO

©01-09-2008 Bill Collins

Good actors they are- they look so sincere
When making a speech watch `em squeeze out a tear
Tell us they're so holy and the good lord they thank
Off camera they laugh all the way to the bank

Speech writers, ad agencies make up a slogan
Guaranteed to wrench hearts and get sympathy flowing
They lead "We The People" like a bull by the nose
They feed us the stuff a bull drops on the road

CHORUS:

How they justify all the things that they do
It's just one more lie; they say "God told me to"
"God told me to, God told me to"
It's just one more lie; they say "God told me to "

They know how to sugarcoat each bitter pill
First they'll bankrupt you then they'll send you the bill
Look you in the eyes while they're stabbing your back
Use the scriptures as filler when they run short on facts

CHORUS

At the end of the day then it's no big surprise
What they've sold to the public that the average Joe buys
Take their hidden agenda and they give it a spin
And they call us a traitor if we're not buying in

CHORUS

(They say) God gave them the money, God gave them the might God gave them a mandate to show us the light
They say it's not lust for power, no it all stems from love
And they were "just following orders" from the man up above

CHORUS

"God told me to, God told me to"
Like serial killers they say "God told me to"
